SPLENDID LAND FOR SALE.
On TUESDAY the 7th day of December next, at noon, at the Court House in Charlotte, I will sell a tract of land, lying one mile east of the city of Charlotte, containing 156 1/2 acres, one half of which is under cultivation, and the rest is heavily timbered. This is really a tract of first-rate land, the soil is good, adapted to corn, cotton and tobacco, and the timber alone, being so near the city, is of great value. Three large tobacco barns are on the premises. It is perhaps, the most valuable tract that will be offered near the city for years.
TERMS: A credit of 12 months with note and security. Title reserved until money is paid. Call at my residence to be shown the premises.
PHILADELPHIA M. TORRENCE,
Executor of C. L. Torrence, dec'd.
Charlotte, Oct. 29.

NOTICE.
Having been appointed Adm'r upon the estate of J. Newell Ross, I request all persons having claims against the said estate to present them, within the time prescribed by law.
Debtors to said estate are requested to make payment to me immediately.
W. M. SHIPP, Adm'r.

Monday, November 29, 1869.

The Ladies, interested in the Catholic Fair which is to take place on the 7th, 8th and 9th of December, are requested to meet at Oates' Hall to-day, (29th) for the purpose of decorating the hall.

The Wilmington Journal says: We earnestly trust that Madame Fashion will prescribe that women shall wear something on their heads this winter. A postage stamp of a bonnet may look very pretty, but it won't do for cold weather.

The Utica Herald tells the following story: "Two maiden sisters, Polly and Sally Reed, aged 85, and 83, who lived alone in scanty circumstances in Brooklyn, Madison county, were found by a neighbor on the morning of 12th inst., Pollo dead on the floor, and Sally lying on the bed in a helpless condition. The latter died on Saturday. They were both terribly mutilated about the head and face. They had often before had frequent quarrels on the most trivial provocations. The weapons used were a pair of tongs and a stick of wood. No inquest was held."

The investigation of the Wall street gold conspiracy by the New York Grand Jury has been concluded, and with all probability end in smoke. The evidence has been contradictory. The Grand Jurors have patiently heard it all, and now that the testimony is all in, they have drawn up a report and indicted nobody. Neither Corbin nor Fisk ever appeared before them, and unkind rumor has it that only those friendly to the clique were examined.

General Caspedes, the leader of the Cuban revolution, has again given a pledge of his earnestness in the cause of liberty even more brilliant than the burning of his large Bayamo property. He now proposes to give to each family who has a father, son or brother martyred for independence, a tract of thirty three acres of land. Caspedes owns in his own right thousands of acres of the most valuable land in Cuba.

Father Hyacinthe's conduct creates a deal of talk in Rome. The Pope was much depressed for several days after the news came, but his holiness seems more cheerful. The Council Hall arrangements divert his thoughts a little from what must be to him, however, and every Roman Catholic, a sorrowful affair.

A well dressed man went into a Milwaukee bank, a few days since, and coolly drew a check for $10,000,000, signing the name of C. Vanderbilt. He said he had brought the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad. Before counting out the money the teller, as is the custom there made some inquiries, and found Mr. Vanderbilt was a lunatic. The money was withheld on that account.

The castor bean, from which the oil is made, is becoming an important industry in Perry county, Cal. One prominent dealer received at his warehouse 1,000 bushels in one day, paying $3.18 per bushel. It yields more bushels to the acre than wheat.

A surgeon of Paris lately exhibited to a friend one of his instruments, the handle of which was carved in bone. "Do you know," he asked, "of what this handle is made?" "Of ivory," I suppose. "No," said the doctor, while tears almost choked his voice: "it is the thigh-bone of my poor aunt."

A paper at Elko, on the Pacific Railroad, speaks of the apathy of the highway robbers, no outrage having been perpetrated by them in the last three days.

The young man who sang, "I'm lonely since my mother died," isn't so lonely now. His father has married, and his stepmother makes it lively enough for him.

Tribute of Respect to Judge Osborne.

At a meeting of the Bar held in the Court House in Charlotte, on Friday, the 26th November, to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Judge James W. Osborne, Hon. Nathaniel Boyden, of Salisbury, was called to the Chair, and R. P. Waring, Esq., requested to act as Secretary. On motion of James M. Hutchison, Esq., the Chair appointed a committee consisting of James M. Hutchison, Esq., H. W. Guion, Esq., Judge Wm. Shipp, and Col. W. P. Bynum, to report resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Bar on the occasion. The Hon. Joseph Wilson then addressed the Bar in strains of deep feeling and pathos, in which he portrayed in touching eloquence, the virtues, high character, learning and great ability of the deceased. They had grown up together, together they had entered upon their professional career, and it afforded him a sad pleasure to bear his testimony to the great personal and professional integrity of his lifelong friend and compeer. They had practiced together for thirty years, and he spoke of him not only as a learned and accomplished jurist, and possessing vast literary acquirements, but as a pure man and a patriot. He said that Western North Carolina was indebted to him for her system of internal improvement, &c.

The Hon. Nathaniel Boyden followed. He had known and practiced with him for thirty-three years. He was his friend, and could say he always found him a pure and upright man, a great lawyer and philanthropist. He was a man of great mind and cultivation, full of genius and brilliancy, stored not only with legal learning, but with treasures from every field of knowledge. Truly, a good and great man had fallen.

H. W. Guion, Esq., said he had started just behind him, and had watched him with admiration and affection. He was a star of no ordinary magnitude, and he bore his testimony to his high attainments, and unblemished purity, and called upon the members of the Bar, not only to imitate his example as a lawyer, but as an humble christian gentleman.

Gen. R. D. Johnston spoke of his courtesy and kindness to the younger members of the profession, and of his pure and lovely character.

Gen. Barringer, his late law partner, paid a glowing tribute to his logical and discriminating mind, and his persistent search after truth. He said he was an extraordinary man, and amid all the cares and vexations of professional life, always found time to devote to the advocacy of the cause of the poor and needy. Col. John E. Brown, next addressed the meeting in confirmation of what Gen. Johnston had said, of his kindly and well-timed assistance to the younger members of the Bar, and bore his testimony to his eloquence, learning and true manliness. He said not only the Bar and the country, but the church had lost a shining ornament.

Col. E. A. Osborne spoke of his private and domestic relations, and said as gentle and lovely as his character appeared to the world, it was rough in comparison with what it was at home. He was at his bedside during his sickness, which he bore uncomplainingly and with christian resignation, was ready and willing to hear the summons, and that he had never seen so calm and serene a death. His tribute was as touching as it was eloquent.

James M. Hutchison, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, since the last term of the Court, to remove from Time to Eternity the Honorable James W. Osborne, for more than thirty years a member of this Bar; and whereas the deceased had endeared himself to his professional brethren by the kindness and courtesy of his intercourse no less than he commanded their respect by his ability as a jurist and advocate, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of the late JAMES W. OSBORNE, the State of North Carolina has lost one of its noblest and most useful citizens, the Bar has been deprived of one of its brightest and most exemplary members, and this particular community has sustained an irreparable loss.

Resolved, We can but console with the surviving members of his afflicted family, and do hereby tender to them our sincere and unfeigned sympathies.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to furnish a copy of the proceedings of this meeting to the family of the deceased, and that the Chairman ask His Honor, the presiding Judge, to order these resolutions to be spread upon the Minute Book of the Court.

The meeting then adjourned.

Forty thousand cases of goods were shipped from our house in one year, to families, clubs and merchants, in every part of the country, from Mexico to California, amounting in value to

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Our facilities for transacting this immense business are better than ever before. We have agents in all the principal cities to purchase goods from the manufacturers, importers, and others for cash, and often on credit.

Our stock consists, in part, of the following goods:—
Blankets, Blankets, Quilts, Cottons, Suits, Towels, Dress Goods, Table Linens, Silverware, Cutlery, Groceries, Skirts, Corsets, &c., &c.
We also have, on hand, a large stock of the following goods:—
Blankets, Blankets, Quilts, Cottons, Suits, Towels, Dress Goods, Table Linens, Silverware, Cutlery, Groceries, Skirts, Corsets, &c., &c.
We also have, on hand, a large stock of the following goods:—
Blankets, Blankets, Quilts, Cottons, Suits, Towels, Dress Goods, Table Linens, Silverware, Cutlery, Groceries, Skirts, Corsets, &c., &c.

We have also made arrangements with some of the leading Publishing Houses, that will enable us to sell the standard and latest works of popular authors at about one half the regular price—such as BYRON, MOORE, BURNS, MILTON, and TAYLOR'S WORKS, in full gilt and cloth bindings, and hundreds of others.

These and everything else for ONE DOLLAR FOR EACH ARTICLE.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise, that can be had by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way, while the greater part of our goods are sold at about

One-half the Regular Rates.

We want good reliable agents in every part of the country. By employing your spare time to form Clubs and sending us orders, you can obtain the most liberal commissions, either in cash or merchandise, and all goods sent by us will be as represented, and we guarantee satisfaction to every one dealing with our house.

Agents should collect ten cents from each customer and forward to us in advance, for Descriptive Checks of the goods we sell.

The holders of the Checks have the privilege of either purchasing the article thereon mentioned, or our catalogue, numbered from 350 different articles—not one of which can be purchased in the usual way for the same money.

The advantages of first sending for Checks are these:—We are constantly buying small lots of very valuable goods, which are not on our catalogue, and for which we issue checks till all are sold; hence, in every large club we will put checks for WATCHES, QUILTS, BLANKETS, DRESS PATTERNS, or some other article of value, giving members of the club an opportunity of purchasing an article for about one quarter of its cost.

"In every order amounting to over $50, accompanied by the cash, the Agent may retain $2.00, and in every order of over $100, $3.00 may be retained."

PAY THE EXPRESS CHARGES.

This offer is more especially to assist Agents in the Western and Southern States, but is open to all customers.

COMMISSIONS
Agents will be paid ten per cent. in Cash or Merchandise, when they fill up their entire club, for which we give a partial List of Commissions.

For an order of $25, from a club of Thirty, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 25 yds Brown or Blackened Sheetting, Good Dress Pattern, Wool Square Shawl, Fr. Rich Cassimere Pants and Vest Pattern, Fine Large White Counterspane, etc., etc., or $3 in cash.

For an order of $50, from a club of Fifty, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 45 yds Sheetting, One pair heavy Wool Blankets, Poplin Dress pattern, Handsome wool Square Shawl, silver-Case Watch, etc., etc., or $5 in cash.

For an order of $100, from a club of One Hundred, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 100 yds good yard-wide Sheetting, Coin-Silver Hunting Case Watch, Rich Long Wool Shawl, Suit of all Wool French Cassimere, etc., etc., or $10 in cash.

We do not employ any Travelling Agents, and customers should not pay money to persons purporting to be our Agents, unless personally acquainted with them.

SEND MONEY ALWAYS BY REGISTERED LETTERS.
